

COPYRIGHT-FREE IMAGES

The following sites all offer copyright-free images that can enhance your digital stories and other presentations:

Virtual Training Suite

An 'Internet Tutorial' that takes you through how to use the Internet for Image Searching – and lets you put interesting sites into a 'links basket' as you go.

<http://www.vts.intute.ac.uk/tutorial/image searching/>

Flickr

The 'Creative Commons' section: <http://www.flickr.com/creativecommons> then click 'See more' under the relevant section. This website also gives a handy explanation of what the licensing actually means.

Flickr CC

Another way in to flickr's Creative Commons Images

<http://flickrcc.bluemountains.net/>

Free Images: two different sites, with similar-looking addresses

<http://www.freeimages.co.uk/>

<http://www.free-images.org.uk/>

Centre for Learning Technology - Links

A portal that gives links to various image sites with an explanation of each

<http://clt.lse.ac.uk/Multimedia/Multimedia-Resources.php>

Pics 4 Learning

<http://www.pics4learning.com/>

Image After

<http://www.imageafter.com/>

East of England Broadband Network

<http://gallery.nen.gov.uk/gallery-e2bn.html>

Learning and Teaching Scotland

<http://www.ltscotland.org.uk/5to14/resources/illustrations/index.asp>